Report on payments to governments
for the year ended 31 December 2016
Introduction
This report provides an overview of the payments made to governments by Gem Diamonds Limited and its subsidiaries (the Group) for the 31 December 2016 financial year, as required under the United Kingdom’s (UK) Report on Payments to Governments Regulations 2014 (as amended December 2015). These UK Regulations enact domestic rules in line with Directive 2013/34/EU (the EU Accounting Directive (2013)) and apply to companies that are involved in extractive activities.

This report is also intended to satisfy the requirements of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules of the Financial Conduct Authority in the United Kingdom.

Basis for preparation

Reporting entities
This report includes payments to governments made by subsidiaries in the Group which are engaged in extractive activities. During the 2016 financial reporting period, extractive activities were conducted in Lesotho and Botswana.

Extractive activities
Extractive activities relate to the exploration, prospection, discovery, development and extraction of minerals, oil, natural gas deposits or other materials. Gem Diamonds Limited, through its subsidiaries, is engaged in diamond mining activities.

Scope of payments
The report discloses only those significant payments made to governments arising from extractive activities.

Government
Government includes any national, regional or local authority of a country. It includes a department, agency or undertaking (i.e. corporation) controlled by that authority.

Payment types disclosed at legal entity level
- Production entitlements
  - There were no payments of this nature for the year ended 31 December 2016.
- Taxes
  - These are payments on the Group’s income, production or profits, excluding taxes levied on consumption such as value added taxes, personal income taxes or sales taxes in line with in-country legislation.
- Royalties
  - These are payments for the right to extract diamonds and are determined on percentage of sales in terms of in-country legislation and mining lease agreements.
- Dividends
  - These are dividend payments, other than dividends paid to a government as an ordinary shareholder of an entity unless paid in lieu of production entitlements or royalties. There were no dividend payments of this nature to governments for the year ended 31 December 2016.
- Signature, discovery and production bonuses
  - There were no payments of this nature to the government for the year ended 31 December 2016.
- Licence fees
  - These are fees paid for acquisition of leases and licences, including annual renewal fees, in order to obtain and maintain access to the areas in which extractive activities are performed. These payments were not above the reportable threshold and have therefore not been reported.
- Payments for infrastructure improvements
  - There were no payments of this nature to the government for the year ended 31 December 2016.

Cash flow basis
Payments reported are on a cash flow basis and may differ to amounts reported in the Gem Diamonds Limited 2016 Annual Financial Statements which are prepared on an accrual basis.
